

SAVE LIBERTY LIGHT.

Pilots Say It Is a Great Help to Navigation.

It Can Be Seen When Other Lights Are Obscured.

Secretary Carlisle Proposes to Abolish It on Grounds of Economy.

The report from Washington to-day Secretary Carlisle has recommended the Appropriation Committee of Congress to abolish the "Liberty Light" on grounds of economy. The light, which is a small, white, cylindrical object, is used by pilots to indicate the position of the ship when other lights are obscured. It is a great help to navigation, and is used by many ships.

According to the report, Secretary Carlisle says the "Liberty Light" is not as important as an aid to navigation; that the appropriation for support of lighthouses, even with the least economy, is insufficient, and that the expenditure of nearly $100,000 a year for the maintenance of the "Liberty Light" should be saved.

As the pilots of the harbor are the best judges of the usefulness of the "Liberty Light," an "Evening World" reporter looked up a number of them this morning, and interviewed them on the subject.

The first person seen was Capt. William B. Hilton, one of the Pilot Commissioners.

"This sort of economy," he said, "makes me tired. Put out the Liberty Light! Why, you'll have New Yorkers up in arms in an instant if such a thing is suggested. They won't stand it."

"As for its usefulness, I know that the pilots of New York harbor could not do a thing without it now. It is certainly a very valuable beacon, and should be maintained by all means."

"But there is another consideration which is just as important, and that is the maintenance of the light. It is a very expensive thing to keep up, and it would certainly be a most judicious act towards the great revenue which the harbor would lose if it were ever neglected. It is in such a manner as is proposed."

"I am, however, one of the oldest New York pilots, said:

"The 'Liberty Light' is one of the most valuable in the harbor now, and we are all taking our bearings by it. Sometimes it is the only light that can be seen from the lower bay, and it is especially valuable in making the turn at the monument, where the light is obscured by the buildings. It is a great help to navigation, and should be maintained by all means."

"It is also invaluable as a mark for the anchorage ground in the upper harbor, and I don't see how we could get along without it."

"I have seen 'Liberty Light' ten miles down the coast in clear weather," said the pilot, "and it is a great help to navigation. It is a very valuable beacon, and should be maintained by all means."

"In fact, you can almost always see 'Liberty Light,' and to take it away would cause much trouble and expense. It is a great help to navigation, and should be maintained by all means."

"We all want it," said one old gray-headed seaman, "for it is a great help to navigation. It is a very valuable beacon, and should be maintained by all means."

"In the office of the New Jersey pilots, at 15 State street, there was a loud outburst against the proposed extinguishing of 'Liberty Light.'"

"We all want it," said one old gray-headed seaman, "for it is a great help to navigation. It is a very valuable beacon, and should be maintained by all means."

NEWS OF THE STAGE WORLD.

D'Oyly Carte to Send a Good Company with "Utopia, Limited."

Robert Taber Engaged for Charles Coghlan's Company.

The indications are that D'Oyly Carte is going to be very careful about the people he sends to this country to present the latest Gilbert and Sullivan opera, "Utopia, Limited." It is very unlikely that the melancholy fate of "The Gondoliers" will be duplicated with the new work. According to the latest, Mr. Carte has already selected the company for America and rehearsals have been begun at the Savoy Theatre. Before the people sail for America they will have been so thoroughly drilled that they could sing the opera on board the steamer. The opera will be staged by Charles Harris, who will give it in every detail just as it is seen at the Savoy.

The opera is still doing very well, indeed, in London, although it is not as widely discussed and quoted from as were the early operas of these inimitable collaborators.

Robert Taber, who played the part of the son in "The Gondoliers," that such a "Woman of No Importance" production. Fifth Avenue Theatre, has been engaged by Charles Coghlan for his starring role. As Taber is at present singing Miss Rose in "The Gondoliers," he has been permitted him to return to his company all shows, which is a very unusual concession for a star of his importance. It shows a lack of that level of fraternal feeling which he was supposed at one time to possess.

Mr. Taber is expecting some very clever comedians, and he is one of those who has been playing first base on his plan of playing first base. The team will be greatly strengthened. Mackenzie is easily the best man on the team. He is a fine hitter and fielder, and one of the best college baseball players that has ever been turned out.

SPORTING NEWS AND GOSSIP.

Princeton's Baseball Material for Its Nine This Season.

Men Who Will Appear for the Free Bread Fund Benefit.

Practice for positions on the Princeton University baseball team has begun in earnest. Princeton nines have not been in the same class with Yale and Harvard for several seasons past, but the Princeton are hopeful this year, and there is good material in the large number of candidates. All of last year's team, except Drake and Woodcock, have returned, but if Princeton is to turn out a winning nine this year she will probably have to add some new men, for last year's team was not able to cope with its rivals. The loss of Drake is not serious, for he was not a first-class college pitcher.

The most promising men for that position this year are Aultman and Bradley, both new-comers. Each comes with a reputation from the preparatory school. Trenchard, Williams, Voths and Brokaw are trying for catcher's position. Trenchard plays better football than he does baseball. The same is true, but to a greater extent, of King, who is expected to play second base.

Capit. Mackenzie can get a man to fill his shoes in left field, and then follows out his plan of playing first base. The team will be greatly strengthened. EXHAUSTED THE JURY PANEL.

Blair Trial Adjourned with Two Vacancies in the Box.

Juror Franklin Excused by Consent of Attorneys.

There is no sign of anxiety in the face of Joseph F. Blair, his wife and his children, but his wife is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism, and is unable to attend to her duties. The jury panel is exhausted, and the trial is adjourned until next week. Juror Franklin has been excused by the consent of the attorneys.

The charge is perjury in having submitted a false statement to the State Superintendent of Banks June 1, 1893, regarding the financial condition of the bank.

President Blair's alleged perjury statement was that the assets of the bank were $2,700,000, and the liabilities were $2,700,000. The actual assets were $2,700,000, and the liabilities were $2,700,000.

The first move made to-day was to excuse the juror, Joseph Franklin, of 1441 Lexington avenue. Assistant District Attorney Vernon M. Davis, who is conducting the prosecution, has agreed to excuse the juror.

The juror, Joseph Franklin, of 1441 Lexington avenue, is a well-known man in the community. He is a member of the jury, and is a well-known man in the community.
